NARRATIVE:

Wendy Garcia is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. Her convictions include assault with deadly weapon with great bodily injury, burglary, jail escape attempt, trespassing, theft of personal property, violation of parole, possession of narcotic controlled substances, vehicle theft, petty theft with prior related convictions, failure to appear, false ID to a peace officer and failing to appear. She has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for burglary. Garcia was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 17, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Garcia qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for petty theft with prior convictions is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
